

Tom Dibb Camper-van Lounge.

Immerse yourself with the beautiful vibe & energy

Tom Dibb

Whether you're watching Tom Dibb solo or with band, get set for a beautifully gutsy performance, as he tells his stories with undertones of blues, roots and folk, grown through a forest of soaring acoustic goodness. Tom has found his sound set firmly with an ever growing, fan base that follow him not only across his home turf in the UK, but also across the Globe. Tom's world tour and self drive expedition in his 1989 vw camper-van all the way from the UK to Australia in 2016, lay the foundations and inspiration for much of his material. It fits into mainstream moulds, yet also satisfies a deeper creative taste.

Kavalla

Kavalla is a fresh and exciting new Alt-Pop artist with gutsy vocals, a big message and a dark mood. Originally from Darlington, many years living in Hertfordshire and now residing in South East London, Kavalla has spent the majority of her life on the stage performing at festivals, venues and theatres all over the world. Kavalla is not afraid to write about some difficult topics and draws inspiration from some of her personal experiences. A captivating and incredibly emotive performer, this artist is definitely 'one to watch.'

Samuel Ashton

Samuel Ashton's music has been described as "Deliciously Soulful" by the BBC's Leo Ulph and his latest EP carries a message to "Breathe Easy" with "Stillness in the face of adversity". Samuel's soul voice and classic RnB sound have seen him sell out shows across the UK and make waves with over 320k streams on Spotify and radio play on the BBC, throughout Europe, the United States and Australia. His latest record sees him work with a talented team of musicians including trombonist Ernest Stuart.

The Gleaves

Two magical solo artists, Chloe Ann Gleaves and Josh Gleaves as a duo perform effortless pristine country folk inspired original songs and clever takes on the not so predictable cover. The warmth and flow of Chloe's smooth voice blended with the confident power of Josh sets you in between a vocal air of ease and excitement. Soaring chords and energetic lead is glued with delicately confident finger picking style, a life on the road together with their acoustic guitars delivers many a story to tell

Danni Nicholls

Hailing from Bedfordshire, England, growing up on the American roots music of her Anglo-Indian grandmother's record collection, singer/songwriter Danni Nicholls has been paving her way in UK Americana for over a decade, building a loyal fan base. "I absolutely love the beauty and elegance of her music" - Bob Harris, BBC Radio 2. With the wind still in her sails from three consecutive Americana Music Association UK award nominations (Album, Artist and Song of the year in 2017, 2018 & 2020 respectively) plus extensive tours and opening slots with the likes of The Secret Sisters, Shakin' Stevens and Lucinda Williams, Danni, her powerful, arresting voice and her dynamically poetic original songs are ever-gaining presence and reach.

Joseph Lofthouse

No stranger to capturing audiences, Joseph Lofthouse's songs are equally unpretentious and sincere. Whether it's at gigs with the likes of Elbow, Blue Rose Code and The Boxer Rebellion. Or playing good friends down the aisle, Joe proves over again that it's possible to make people travel with a guitar and a song. Even when they have both feet planted on the ground. 'A pleasant introduction to a classic songsmith' - livestream magazine

Run Remedy

Hailing from the birthplace of the Boss, meet the alt-indie folk artist Run Remedy: expressive, rhythmic, melancholic, and slightly irreverent tunes by Robin Koob, perfect for fans of fellow soul-bearing artists ala Angel Olsen, Fiona Apple, Julia Jacklin, Elliott Smith, and Lucy Dacus. An apostate of the classical world, Koob is a multi-genre violinist complete with pedal board, hustling across the UK playing everything from post-rock and heavy metal to psych pop, indie and Americana

Sand & Stone

Sand and Stone are a sibling duo from Folkestone in Kent, writing original acoustic/ folk rock music accompanied by their dynamic and soulful harmonies. Abi and Tom have performed together across the UK since 2010, playing at a variety of venues and festivals. They have showcased their original material at the Songwriters Masterclass event held at the Apple store in Covent Garden, and in 2018 made it through to the live stages of The Voice UK. In 2023 recorded their first album From Trees to Seas

Joe Topping

Joe is a singer-songwriter & multi instrumentalist from Merseyside. His songwriting and accomplished guitar playing regularly moves listeners to tears & who's charismatic stage presence and engaging stories have entertained audiences all over the country & abroad. Joe's adventurous spirit has also seen him living in a pickup truck for the best part of a year in North America & also walking 1400 miles from Chicago to New Orleans with a guitar on his back! Joe reached Semifinals of ITV's The Voice in 2021 & was described by Sir Tom Jones as "a Weaver of Dreams!".
